(Please check.)

Other Directions:

A pending dispositive motion cancels any previously scheduled status conference and adjourns the dates set out in this Scheduling Order as to all parties making or opposing the motion. In the event a dispositive motion is made after the completion of discovery, the dates for submitting the Memoranda of Law, Requests to Charge, Proposed Voir Dire, Pretrial Order and start of trial shall be changed from that shown above to three (3) weeks from the decision on the motion. The final pretrial conference, if any, will be scheduled by the Courtroom Deputy.

At any time after the Ready Trial Date, the Court may call the parties to trial upon forty-eight hours' notice. Therefore, counsel must notify the Court and their adversaries in writing of any potential scheduling conflicts, including, but not limited to, trials and vacations, that would prevent at trial at a particular time. Such notice must come before counsel are notified by the Court of an actual trial date, not after. Counsel should notify the Court and all other counsel in writing, at the earliest possible time of any particular scheduling problems involving out-of-town witnesses or other exigencies.

The parties also have the option of trying this action before the Magistrate Judge assigned to this case. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(c). Such a trial would be identical to a proceeding before this Court in all respects, and the judgment would be directly appealable to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. Given the nature of this Court's criminal docket, it is more likely that electing to proceed before the Magistrate Judge would result in the parties receiving a firm trial date.

All communications to the Court and all filed papers must identify the name and docket number of the case, followed by the initials of the Judge (KMW), contain the writer's typewritten name, party's name, law firm (if any), business address and telephone number, and be signed by the individual attorney responsible for the matter (unless the party is proceeding pro se). Any letter to the Court must state the manner in which the letter was served on all other counsel.

If either party wishes to change the dates set forth in this Scheduling Order, it must submit a written request to the Court that complies with § 1.E of Judge Wood's Individual Practices.

DISCOVERY PLAN PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 26(f)

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f), during a conference on [DATE] between counsel for plaintiff [PLAINTIFF'S NAME] (plaintiff) and counsel for defendant [DEFENDANT'S NAME] (defendant), counsel for the parties discussed and agreed to the following discovery plan:

(1) The parties shall exchange the initial disclosures required under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1) no later than [DATE].

<sup>1</sup> The Court recognizes that discovery plans will vary in accordance with the needs of the parties. This Model Discovery Plan is intended only to guide the parties in developing a more individualized plan.

<sup>2</sup> Rule 26(f)(1) no longer accommodates local rules; hence, parties should follow Rule 26(a)(1) in determining the timing, form and requirement of initial disclosure. "These disclosures must be made at or within 14 days after the Rule 26(f) conference unless a different time is set by stipulation or court order, or unless a party objects during the conference that initial disclosures are not appropriate in the circumstances of the action and states the objection in the Rule 26(f) discovery plan." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(E).

(2) Both plaintiff and defendant shall serve their first request for production of documents, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34, no later than [DATE].

(3) Both plaintiff and defendant shall serve their notices of deposition, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30, no later than [DATE]. Plaintiff anticipates deposing: (a) [NAME]; (b) [NAME]; and (c) [NAME]. Defendant anticipates deposing: (a) [NAME]; (b) [NAME]; and (c) [NAME].

(4) Depositions of the parties shall commence after [DATE], at mutually convenient dates and times, without prejudice to either party conducting a non-party deposition beforehand at a mutually convenient date, time and place.

(5) Both plaintiff and defendant shall serve subpoenas upon any third party witnesses no later than [DATE], seeking the production of documents and/or depositions.

(6) Plaintiff shall serve its expert's report upon defendants, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2), no later than [DATE]. The reports shall set forth the facts on which the expert relies and the process of reasoning by which the expert's conclusions are reached.

---

<sup>3</sup> "[T]he [expert witness] disclosures shall be made at least 90 days before the trial date or the date the case is to be ready for trial. . . ." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(c).

(8) Depositions of the experts shall begin in time to be completed no later than [DATE FOR PLAINTIFF'S EXPERT] and [DATE FOR DEFENDANT'S EXPERT].

CHAMBERS OF THE HONORABLE KIMBA M. WOOD

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FIRST SCHEDULING
CONFERENCE AND SUBSEQUENT STATUS CONFERENCES

Attendance at first Scheduling Conference and subsequent Status Conferences. Each party who is not pro se must be represented by a lawyer who is fully informed about the factual and legal issues of the case and who, under Rule 16(c) as amended, shall have authority to enter into stipulations and to make admissions regarding all matters that the participants may reasonably anticipate maybe discussed. Counsel should give notice of the conference to any persons who are not shown on the docket as counsel but who should be in attendance.

If this case has been settled or otherwise terminated, counsel are not required to appear, provided that a stipulation of discontinuance, voluntary dismissal, or other proof of termination is delivered before the date of the conference to the Courtroom Deputy Clerk of Judge Wood.

Attorneys are directed to consult the Judge's Individual Practices with respect to communications with Chambers and related matters. Communications not in compliance with Judge Wood's individual rules will not be entertained.

<sup>1</sup> It is preferable for counsel to seek to adjourn a conference rather than to send to a conference a lawyer who is not well informed about the factual and legal issues of the case and who lacks the authority described above. Otherwise, the cost of opposing counsel's attendance at the conference may be imposed upon counsel who ignored this direction.

In accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §636(c), and Fed.R.Civ.P. 73, you are notified that a United States magistrate judge of this district court is available to conduct any or all proceedings in this case including a jury or nonjury trial, and to order the entry of a final judgment.
